WHEEL OF FORTUNE ‘WHEELMOBILE’ STOPS AT NORTHERN QUEST CASINO IN JUNE

SPOKANE, Wa, (June 17) – “Wheel of Fortune,” television’s top-rated game show, will be holding auditions for contestants at Northern Quest Casino.

The audition shows will be held June 28-29 at 12 noon, 1:30 and 3 p.m. in the casino’s Pend Oreille Pavilion.

Applications for the event will be distributed in a cordoned-off section of Northern Quest Casino’s parking lot beginning one hour before each of the audition shows. Contestants for the audition shows will be chosen during random drawings.

While there are two auditions, the public audition will be held June 29 and is open to anyone 18 or older. A private, member-only audition for Camas Club members will be held June 28. All Camas Club members must be 21 or older and be an active club member.

For complete rules and more information on how Camas Club members may participate, visit www.northernquest.com and click on the “Wheel of Fortune” link on the home page.

For more information on the public audition, including rules and a description of the process, visit www.khq.com and click on the “Wheel of Fortune” link on the home page.

“Wheel of Fortune’s” popular and colorful “Wheelmobile,” a 32-foot Winnebago that serves as a rolling headquarters for the contestant search, will be at Northern Quest Casino both days.
