MURDER, MASKS AND FANCY FOOTWORK AT NORTHERN QUEST CASINO'S HALLOWEEN PARTY

SPOKANE, Wa. (Oct. 15) – It's a murder mystery, a dance party and a costume ball all rolled into one fun-filled evening as Northern Quest Casino celebrates Halloween with a spook-tacular event Oct. 31.

Party time in the Pend Oreille Pavilion is 8:30 p.m. Tickets are $35 and $45 and are available at the Northern Quest box office at 509-481-6700 or through TicketsWest at (800) 325-7328 or ticketswest.com

The "murder" will be part of a who-done-it mystery that's all part of the three-in-one event. "Lady Smithereen," a popular (if not fictional) Las Vegas entertainer, will be celebrating the release of her new album when a member of her entourage is murdered.

Guest of Northern Quest's Halloween party, who are encouraged to wear costumes, will meet all the participants in the mystery and then try to solve the mystery and bring the killer to justice, provided they're not too busy dancing to music from the '80s and '90s.

The casino's Pend Oreille Pavilion will take on the appearance of a nightclub reminiscent of the legendary Studio 54, and party guests will enjoy light hors d'oeuvres during the evening.

Judges will award prizes for a variety of costume contests.
